if any person having been thus admonished, shall persevere in that neglect for another year, without rendering satisfactory reasons for so doing, this church may, at its discretion, declare that such member hath broken his or her covenant with this church, and that the obligations of the church to watch over that member have ceased.

V.—There shall be a Committee of this church, consisting of four members chosen annually by ballot, who, with the Pastor, shall have the powers and perform the duties specified in the following articles.

1st. It shall be the duty of this Committee to satisfy themselves of the fitness or otherwise, of all persons applying for admission to this church, and to propound or neglect to propound them accordingly.

2d. It shall be the duty of this Committee to acquaint themselves with those uniting with this church, from time to time, and to introduce them as far as practicable, to the acquaintance of other members of this church.

3d. In all cases of offence, when the preliminary measures prescribed in the 18th of Matthew's Gospel shall have been taken, complaint may be made to this Committee, instead of the church, and it shall be the duty of the Committee to ascertain the facts in every such case which may come before them, and report to the church, (if on inquiry and investigation it may be deemed necessary,) both of the facts, and the measures proper, in their opinion, to be pursued.

4th. It shall be the duty of this Committee at the annual meeting succeeding that on which they receive their appointment, to make a report in writing, of the state and progress of religion in the church during the year, taking particular notice of the various contributions and donations in the congregation, for objects of christian benevolence,—and also exhibiting the operation and success of the Sabbath School, and other means for the religious education of our children and youth.

VI.—There shall be a Clerk and Treasurer appointed in this church, who, besides discharging the ordinary duties of those offices, shall report at the annual meeting of the church, the names of such as have been added by profession or letter during the year, —the names of such as may have in any way ceased to be members during the year,—the names of all who have removed their residence, or ceased to worship with us without removing their relation, although more than two years have elapsed,—and also the names of such as shall have been at that time stated communicants in this church for more than a year, without offering themselves to become its members. It shall also be his duty as Treasurer, to report at the annual meeting an account of the sums received into the Treasury and the sums paid for the expenses of the church and the relief of poor members.

VII.—There shall be a meeting of this church for the transaction of business, the Friday preceding the first Sabbath of every other month, and that held on the Friday preceding the first Sabbath in June shall be regarded as the annual meeting.

VIII.—These rules may be altered or amended at any regular business meeting of the church, notice of said alteration or amendment having been given at a previous meeting, and receiving a vote of two thirds of the members present.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

ARTICLE I.—We believe that there is one God, the creator and rightful disposer of all things—existing as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that to these three persons, as the one God, all divine perfections are to be equally ascribed.

ART. II.—We believe that the Bible was given by inspiration of God, as the only unerring rule of faith and practice.

ART. III.—We believe that mankind are fallen from their original rectitude, and are, while in a state of nature, wholly destitute of that holiness which is required by the divine law.

ART. IV.—We believe that Jesus Christ, the Eternal Word, became man, and by his obedience, sufferings and death, made an atonement for the sins of the world.

ART. V.—We believe that they and they only will be saved, in consequence of the merits of Christ, who repent of sin and believe in him.

ART. VI.—We believe that although the invitations of the gospel are such, that all, who will, may come and take of the water of life freely, yet the wickedness of the human heart is such, that none will come, unless drawn by the special influences of the Holy Spirit.

ART. VII.—We believe that the Sacraments of the New Testament are, Baptism and the Lord's Supper; Baptism to be administered only to believers and their households; and the Supper only to believers in regular church standing.

ART. VIII.—We believe that God has appointed a day in which he will judge the world; when there will be a resurrection of the dead, and the righteous will enter on eternal happiness, and the wicked will be sentenced to eternal misery.

THE COVENANT.

You do now, in the presence of God and men, choose the Lord Jehovah to be your God and Father, the Lord Jesus Christ to be your only Savior—the Holy Spirit to be your Sanctifier. You dedicate yourself to God, unreservedly surrendering all that you have and are to his sovereign disposal, engaging by his assistance to live henceforth to him, and not to yourself, and to aim, whatever you do, to do all to his glory. You cordially join yourself to this Church, and engage to be subject to its discipline, so far as it is conformable to the gospel, and to walk with the members thereof in love, watchfulness and purity.

I, then, in the presence of God and these witnesses, and in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, pronounce you a member of this branch of his visible Church, and we engage to treat you as such; to watch over you in love; praying that we all may become more and more conformed to the example of our Divine Master, till we come to the perfection of holiness, in the kingdom of his glory.

STANDING RULES.

RULE I.—Persons who have not made a public profession of religion by becoming members in full communion with some Christian church, are to give satisfactory evidence of christian character before being received as members of this Church; and after having been publicly propounded two weeks, are to be received as members by a vote of the brethren, and by their profession of faith, and solemn public assent to the Covenant of the Church.

II.—Any person bringing a dismissal and recommendation from a Christian church, unless something is shown to invalidate his testimonials, may be admitted to membership in this church without a public assent to the Covenant, by a vote of the brethren. In all cases, however, such persons shall present their testimonials to the Committee of the church, and have a personal interview with them, and be by them publicly propounded (unless objections are found to exist) at least two weeks before the question is taken.

III.—Members of Christian churches joining with us statedly in public worship and Christian ordinances, are expected to enter into covenant with this church regularly, as members. And persons neglecting to do this for a longer period than one year, shall not after the expiration of that time consider themselves invited to commune with us, unless for special reasons; in which case a request for farther communion may be presented to the church through the Pastor.

IV.—Any person going out from or ceasing to worship with this church, is expected to ask a dismission and recommendation to some Christian church within one year from the time of his or her removal.

V.—There shall be a Committee of this church, consisting of four members, chosen annually by ballot, who, with the Pastor, shall have the powers and perform the duties specified in the following articles:

1st. It shall be the duty of this Committee to satisfy themselves of the fitness or otherwise of all persons applying for admission to this church, and to propound or neglect to propound them accordingly.

2d. It shall be the duty of this Committee to acquaint themselves with those uniting with this church, from time to time, and to introduce them, as far as practicable, to the acquaintance of other members of this church.

3d. In all cases of offence, when the preliminary measures prescribed in the 18th of Matthew's Gospel shall have been taken, complaint may be made to this Committee, instead of the church, and it shall be the duty of the Committee to ascertain the facts in every such case which may come before them, and report to the church, (if on inquiry and investigation it may be deemed necessary,) both of the facts, and the measures proper, in their opinion, to be pursued.

4th. It shall be the duty of this Committee, at the annual meeting succeeding that on which they receive their appointment, to make a report of the state and progress of religion in the church during the year, taking particular notice of the various contributions and donations in the congregation for objects of christian benevolence; and also exhibiting the operation and success of the Sabbath School, and other means for the religious education of our children and youth.

VI.—There shall be a Clerk and Treasurer appointed in this church, who, besides discharging the ordinary duties of those offices, shall report at the annual meeting of the church the names of such as have been added by profession or letter during the year —the names of such as may have in any way ceased to be members during the year—the names of all who have removed their residence, or ceased to worship with us without removing their relation, although more than two years have elapsed. It shall also be his duty as Treasurer to report at the annual meeting an account of the sums received into the Treasury, and the sums paid for the expenses of the church and the relief of poor members.

VII.—There shall be an annual meeting for the election of officers and transaction of business on the Friday preceding the first Sabbath in June.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

You now appear in the presence of Christ and His people to profess your Christian faith.

We trust that you understand the nature of this act—that you are prepared for it by hearty sympathy with the spirit of your Master.

To meet the obligations you now assume, you will need humility, sincerity, reverence and decision.

You utter your vows at Christ's bidding. His grace shall be sufficient for you. Clinging to Him with a faithful affection, you will always rejoice that you have been brought to this hour.

Acknowledging the unity of the Church of Christ, and seeking fellowship with all who love Him in sincerity and truth, we confess our belief in one God, infinite in power, wisdom and love.

We believe that He is revealed to us as God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, each exercising the attributes of Divinity.

We believe that all mankind is prone to sin, that every one capable of choosing between good and evil becomes sinful before God.

We believe "that God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

We believe that all truth is made effectual by the power of the Holy Spirit; that by His gracious influence men are convinced of their sin, led to repentance, renewed and sanctified.

We believe in an organized and visible Church, in the ministry of the Word, in the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, in the resurrection of the dead, in the final judgment, when "the wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal."

We accept these truths as revealed in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, which, as inspired by God, we believe to be the only authoritative record of His will.

In assenting to this as your declaration of belief, do you promise to be faithful in Christian labor, and to co-operate with all who hold "one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism," in declaring the Gospel of Peace to every creature.

(Here the assent of candidates for admission shall be given.)

May He, to whom all power is given in Heaven and earth, fulfill the promise which is all our hope: "Lo, I am with you alway, even to the end of the world."

(Here the rite of baptism shall be administered.)

THE COVENANT.

[Church rising.] You do now, in the presence of God and men, choose the Lord Jehovah to be your God and Father, the Lord Jesus Christ to be your only Saviour, the Holy Spirit to be your sanctifier. You dedicate yourself to God, unreservedly surrendering all that you have and are to His sovereign disposal, engaging by His assistance to live henceforth to Him, and not to yourself, and to aim, whatever you do, to do all to His glory. You cordially join yourself to this Church, and engage to be subject to its discipline, so far as it is conformable to the gospel, and to walk with the members thereof in love, watchfulness and purity.

I, then, in the presence of God and these witnesses, and in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, pronounce you a member of this branch of His visible Church; and we engage to treat you as such; to watch over you in love; praying that we all may become more and more conformed to the example of our Divine Master, till we come to the perfection of holiness, in the kingdom of His glory.

"The Lord bless thee and keep thee. The Lord make His face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace." Amen.
